

The "show" being proposed for broadcast stations of the Sinclair is just another travesty of the Bush campaign where they get other, "unrelated" groups to do their dirty work. This is a campaign ad and should be paid for. This tactic is also another indication of the very dangerous direction the FCC, under Michael Powell, is allowing and encouraging our media to take.